CLIFTY

Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Young and son, William Richard, are spending Thanksgiving in Nashville with Robert O. Young, of Vanderbilt.

Zolite Rackley left Saturday for North Carolina, where he expects to locate. We hate to see Mr. Rackley leave, but wish him well in his new home.

Miss Sallie Hudgens spent the holidays with homefolks and at a house party near Monterey.

Miss Willie Officer went home for Thanksgiving and will return Monday morning in time to resume her duties at the opening of school.

Mrs. Thomas Moore has gone to Sparta and will spend some time with her mother who lives near there.

Misses Nell O'Neal and Myrtle Ashburn are with homefolks over Saturday and Sunday. They will return to their respective schools Monday.

Mrs. J. R. Gott, who returned from the bedside of her mother Thursday, received a message that her mother died Saturday afternoon.

Guy Driver has returned to Pleasant Hill to school after having been at home several weeks suffering from a case of measles. Nearly every one who had not had it previously have had measles the past six or eight weeks. There have been over four hundred cases during that time, so our physician, Dr. J. R. Gott, informs us.

Thanksgiving was celebrated by working this year. There were no exercises and the mines did not shut down, as there had been so much time lost through sickness and other causes. Only one turkey, to the writers knowledge, gobbled in our little town before that festive day, and he died, probably from loneliness, before Thanksgiving arrived and did not grace an expectant table, therefore going the way few turkeys go, but going "en masse."

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gott and son, John Richard, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lovejoy Thanksgiving day.

A lot of hogs have died in our town lately, but their owners do not seem to be worried, but are like the man who paid Rip Van Winkle's rent; they wear a smile on their face, and there is an odor of fresh sausage in the place, and hog and hominy reign supreme. Most of our people raised enough meat to do them, with 'taters to spare, so we don't worry about the food question.

Christmas is coming and nearly everybody has that "high-cost-of-giving" look on their face.

James Rackley and family have moved back to Clifty after living over near Pikeville for the past year or so.

Brother Duncan, the new Methodist preacher for this charge, preached here last Sunday, morning and night, and made a lot of friends while here. He will make his home at Bon Air. He is a brother of Rev. Berry Duncan who served this work for four years, leaving two years ago.

The afternoon Sunday school has resumed services after a lapse of several Sundays due to the epidemic of measles in our town.

We trust that everyone is still thinking of the Cumberland Plateau Fair and that we will all pull together for its success. We can not afford to fall down on this undertaking, but let's BOOST it at all times. Remember, it's up to us mountain people. Remember, the valley people would not help us if we wanted them to. So, let's get busy and keep busy and—BOOST.

December 2. Clifty-Spirit.
